The 2018 Knowledge-Based Audits of Public Entities reflects current authoritative literature, including PCAOB auditing standards, and is current through Auditing Standard (AS) No. 3101, The Auditor’s Report on an Audit of Financial Statements When the Auditor Expresses and Unqualified Opinion. The 2018-2019 tools include links to specific guidance that provides instant access to detailed analysis related to the steps and processes discussed in the workpapers. Many new tips and examples have been incorporated. Also included are revised financial statement disclosures checklists that provide a centralized resource of the required and recommended U.S. GAAP and SEC disclosures and key presentation items currently in effect, using the style referencing under the FASB Accounting Standards Codification™.

Knowledge-Based Audit Documents (KBAs)

Important Information about Updating to the 2018 KC titles posted after July 2018

Beginning with the 2018 KBA Commercial title, there are significant changes to the KBA 40X ALC series workpapers that firms should review prior to content update through roll forward or Update Knowledge Coach Workpapers. Many of the activity controls have changed and will automatically reset on content update. Therefore, if you do plan to use the update knowledge coach content feature, consider publishing these workpapers before you update and re-evaluate your responses to the changed content. These changes were made to better describe true control objectives as opposed to control activities. We feel these changes make the tools more closely align with how internal control environments work and therefore easier to use and understand.

The amendments in represent changes to clarify the Codification, correct unintended application of guidance, or make minor improvements to the Codification that are not expected to have a significant effect on current accounting practice. In addition, some of the amendments are intended to make the Codification easier to understand and easier to apply by eliminating inconsistencies, providing needed clarifications, and improving the presentation of guidance in the Codification.

The amendments that require transition guidance are effective for all entities for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted, including adoption in an interim period. All other amendments were effective upon issuance of the ASU (i.e., June 12, 2015). <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Early adoption is permitted for annual or interim reporting periods for which the financial statements have not previously been issued. (ASC 205-40-65-1) Prior to the issuance of ASU No. 2014-15, there was no guidance in U.S. GAAP about management’s responsibility to evaluate whether there is substantial doubt about an entity’s ability to continue as a going concern or to provide related disclosures in notes to financial statements. U.S. auditing standards and federal securities laws require that an auditor evaluate whether there is substantial doubt about an entity’s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time not to exceed one year beyond the date of the financial statements being audited. The SEC also has guidance on disclosures that it expects from an entity when an auditor’s report includes an explanatory paragraph that reflects substantial doubt about an entity’s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time (The Codification of Financial Reporting Policies, Section 607.02).Therefore, prior to the effective date of ASU No. 2014-15 and for entities that have not elected early adoption of ASU No. 2014-15, the disclosure requirements in items 7 and 8 below should be followed. 7. When, primarily because of the auditor’s consideration of management’s plans, the auditor concludes that substantial doubt about the entity’s ability to continue as a going concern for a period of time not to exceed one year from the balance-sheet date is alleviated, do the financial statements include adequate disclosures such as the following ( AU-C 570.13; PCAOB AS 2415.11): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. 	may still elect to adopt ASC Topic 842 according to the public business entity effective dates discussed above. ( ASC 842-10-S65-1 )
Modified	An entity also may elect a practical expedient to not assess whether existing or expired land easements that were not previously accounted for as leases under ASC Topic 840 are or contain a lease under ASC Topic 842 . For purposes of this item 5, a land easement (also commonly referred to as a right of way) refers to a right to use, access, or cross another entity’s land for a specified purpose. This practical expedient should be applied consistently by an entity to all its existing and expired land easements that were not previously accounted for as leases under. This practical expedient may be elected separately or in conjunction with either one or both of the practical expedients in item items 4 and 6. An entity that elects this practical expedient for existing or expired land easements should apply ASC Topic 842 to land easements entered into (or modified) on or after the date that the entity first applies ASC Topic 842 . An entity that previously accounted for existing or expired land easements as leases under ASC Topic 840 above is not eligible for this practical expedient for those land easements. Added	An entity also may elect a practical expedient, which must be applied consistently by an entity to all of its leases (including those for which the entity is a lessee or a lessor) to use hindsight in determining the lease term (i.e., when considering lessee options to extend or terminate the lease and to purchase the underlying asset) and in assessing impairment of the entity’s right-of-use assets. This practical expedient may be elected separately or in conjunction with either one or both of the practical expedients in items 4 and 5 above.
Modified	If an entity uses one or more of the practical expedients in items 4 through 6 above, it should disclose that fact.
