Tax Updates

Updates to K-2 and K-3 for Partnerships and S Corporations

For Partnerships and S Corporations, there are updates to K-2 and K-3 from the last release.

- Schedule K-2: The Schedule K-2 form will be generated solely based on the Schedule K-2 worksheets.
- Schedule K-3: By default, the Schedule K-3 form will be autogenerated for all partners or shareholders whenever there is input on the Schedule K-2 worksheet.

You'll have the ability to suppress Schedule K-3 at the return level, and to produce or suppress Schedule K-3 at the partner/shareholder level.

- To suppress Schedule K-3 for all partners/shareholders at the return level, select Return Options > Processing Options worksheet.
- To suppress and individual partner/shareholder, input is available on the Partner/Shareholder Information detail worksheet. Select "Y" to produce Schedule K-3 for the specific partner/shareholder, or "N" to suppress it for the specific partner/shareholder.

Testing is still in process for both Schedules K-2 and K-3. However, with the exception of the statements and forms required in support of the Part I check boxes, all "required on form" overflows and statements are now in place and functioning. The supporting statements and forms for Part I check boxes are planned for availability over the next couple of releases.

- S Corporation Passthrough (IRS K-1 1120S) > Activity > State passthrough entity credit
- New York > Credits > Pass-Through Entity Tax Credit (IT-653)

Pennsylvania - Pennsylvania Cities

Form CLGS-32-1, Line 15 by default applies overpayment in one column to a balance due in the other column when a jointly filed return using two columns and refund / tax due offsets are used and the Credit to spouse check box is checked.

If a zero is entered in Pennsylvania Cities > Estimates / Underpayments > Amount of overpayment credited to Spouse, the Credit to spouse check box will be unchecked.

Printing of Pennsylvania state schedules in the Local Earned Income Tax return has been revised. Form W-2 and Pennsylvania Schedule RK-1 and NRK-1 will print with form CLGS-32-1 when present in the return per CLGS-32-1 instructions when the proper conditions exist to do so.

For Example: Form W-2 prints when Federal > Return Options > Processing Options > Facsimile W2 Print = {Y}. If the return does not have Facsimile W2 Print selected but has a W2 with a matching PAC jurisdiction code, diagnostic 39412 issues. Pennsylvania Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 will follow the same logic as the other Pennsylvania schedules (UE, C, E, F, etc) when Pennsylvania > Generic Cities > General > Jurisdiction Information - Overrides > Business income code is used.

- If this input is blank or codes 5-8 are used, the schedules will print when present in the return; otherwise they will not.
- Additionally, diagnostics 39413 (1099s) and 39414 (CLGS-32-1, Line 12 is greater than zero) will issue to alert you that manual collation of Forms 1099 and the non-resident state, non-Pennsylvania city, or Philadelphia returns are required when filing Form CLGS-32-1.

Pennsylvania - Philadelphia

Form S-1.

- All amounts from an estate or trust are reported on Form S-1, Line 5. This includes interest, dividends, state taxable tax exempt interest, and state taxable tax exempt dividends.
- Form S-1, Line 14 is limited to zero if Line 13 is greater than Line 12.

Per Philadelphia government form instructions, the date in "The filing date of the Philadelphia return is extended until" sentence on extension letters and extension filing instructions will be June 20, 2022 for Forms BIRT, NPT, and S-1 when a Federal Form 4868 is not present.
