Tax Updates

IRS E-File Opening: In response to IRS electronic filing opening for Individual returns on Monday, January 24, 2022, we will also open for qualified Individual returns. We are also open for Fiduciary return filing now. See 2021 Electronic Filing section for details.

Individual - Federal and state updates related to major revisions of federal forms are ongoing. Please refer to the Forms Release Status for form availability.

Corporation and S Corporation - Nebraska - Roll Forward updates are available for Form PTC, Nebraska Property Tax Incentive Act Credit Computation to correct input that was dropping based upon year end dates not equal to "12/31."

Unapproved Forms for Selected States can not be Printed - Several states implemented new requirements for Tax Year 2021. Forms that have not been approved by the taxing authority cannot be printed from the software. Due to that requirement, electronic filing is also unavailable since a tax return cannot be produced for a taxpayer to review. These changes affect unapproved forms in all systems for the following states:

Arkansas	Mississippi
California	Montana
Connecticut	New York
District of Columbia	Pennsylvania
Georgia	South Carolina
Indiana	Texas
Kansas	Vermont
Michigan	Virginia
Minnesota

Electronic Filing Updates

Individual

The IRS has announced that electronic filing for Individual returns opens on Monday, January 24, 2022.

We will begin allowing upload and release of qualified Individual returns on Monday, January 24, 2022 at 9 a.m. CST.

Fiduciary

The IRS is open for Fiduciary return filing. Qualified Fiduciary returns can be uploaded and released on Sunday, January 23, 2022.
