Viewing State Content

State content is now available for new and existing CCH Access iQ customers. You will be notified by the iQ change log when new state events are added to iQ, so that you are aware of state legislation changes (regardless of licensing). For state licensing, please contact your account representative for more information.

To easily find a state event, type the name of the state in the search filter at the top of the events list page. Alternatively, the Jurisdiction filter in the iQ events list filter pane can be used to view events for a specific state.
