NEW IN THIS RELEASE

Knowledge-Based Audits of Health Care Entities is designed to help the auditor efficiently and effectively perform financial statement audits of health care entities in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). The knowledge-based audit is a risk-based methodology that emphasizes using knowledge of the entity to assess the risk of material misstatement of the financial statements. This allows the auditor to more appropriately focus audit efforts on those areas which in the auditor's judgment are the most significant and pose the most risk to the financial statement audit. The operations of health care entities are often unique and complex, and require specialized accounting and auditing knowledge. Health care organizations can be for-profit or nonprofit entities. Consideration of the structural makeup of the health care organization is important when customizing the audit plan, performing risk assessments, and developing audit procedures to ensure an effective audit in accordance with GAAS. This module includes up-to-date guidance for auditing health care organizations such as hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, continuing care retirement communities, managed care organizations, home health agencies, and federally qualified health centers.

The 2011 edition of Knowledge-Based Audits of Health Care Entities is current through SAS-121, Revised Applicability of Statement on Auditing Standards, No. 100—Interim Financial Information, and includes the following updates:

2011 ProSystem fx Knowledge Tools

The 2011 Knowledge Tools have been updated to take into account new or pending auditing standards and guidance. References to FASB pre-Codification literature have been removed throughout the forms and practice aids. In addition, various practice alerts have been added to address the applicability of new or pending audit standards and guidance to audits of health care entities. The 2011 tools now include links to industry specific guidance that provides instant access to detailed analysis related to the steps and processes discussed in the workpapers. Also included is a revised financial statement disclosures checklist that provides a centralized resource of the required and recommended GAAP disclosures and key presentation items currently in effect, using the style referencing under the FASB Accounting Standards Codification™.

Important Roll Forward Information

To ensure that changes made in our documents do not effect the documents' compliance with standards, some information will not roll forward from previous versions. To ensure as much information as possible will roll forward, do not roll forward from the 2010 Knowledge-Based Audits of Health Care Entities™ to the 2011 Knowledge-Based Audits of Health Care Entities™ until you have installed the ProSystem fx Engagement release 5.7.1 or later. For any title-specific roll forward information, refer to the Help icon found in the Roll Forward Wizard.

Note: While working through your Word documents, it is important to follow certain steps to avoid any data loss upon roll forward. If you save the workpaper before tabbing out of a cell, you risk losing data when rolling forward. If upon roll forward you experience any data loss in a workpaper, do the following:

1. Open the workpaper.
2. Update the problem cell with random text (only after experiencing data loss).
3. Tab out of the cell.
4. Go back into the cell and remove the random text.
5. Tab out of the cell.
6. Save the document.
