

ProSystem fx Tax v. 2008.05000

2008 1040 Connecticut Filing Single or Domestic Production Activity Deduction Estimate Scan

Connecticut passed a bill on September 8, 2009 which will create a new 6.5% tax rate for taxable income over $1,000,000 for joint filers, $800,000 for head of household filers, and $500,000 for single and separately filing individuals. This bill also disallowed the domestic production activities deduction for CT and deferred exemption amount changes for single taxpayers. In order to allow the taxpayer to calculate Form CT-1040ES at the new rates we have added a box on CT2, Box 38 or Connecticut > Estimates/Underpayments worksheet > Estimate section on Release 2008.04030.

The Estct scan identifies CT returns that had a domestic production activities deduction or have a single filing status and have estimated tax due.
