10 Business Day Rule for State Electronic Filing

As previously communicated, a new state electronic filing requirement related to the application of software updates may impact your internal workflow. This requirement mandates that "users/customers of this product who attempt to e-file 10 or more business days after a production release will be required to download and apply the product update." This requirement, which has been adopted by 39 states, applies to every tax software company. Please review the following Knowledge Base articles for more information about this new requirement:

- Changes for 2019 Tax Filing Season, 10 Business Day Rule for State Electronic Filing
- Which states can expire for electronic filing due to the 10 Business Day Rule for State Electronic Filing?
- What is the Stopped Return Expired status for electronic filing?

Product Updates

Partnership (1065) Product Updates

Return to Table of Contents.

Federal

The Schedule K-1, Part II, Line H, Domestic partner check box will now be checked instead of the Foreign partner check box for partners who are U.S. citizens but have a foreign address printing on their Schedule K-1, Part II, Line F.

Unadjusted basis of assets (UBA) now includes cost of goods sold assets.

Arkansas

Updated Arkansas Schedule K, Line 2 net rental real estate income to factor in the depreciation difference. If the federal depreciation amount for rental real estate is higher than the Arkansas amount, the net rental real estate income will increase by the difference. If the Arkansas depreciation amount for rental real estate is higher than the federal amount, the net rental real estate income will decrease by the difference.

Massachusetts

Schedule FCI, Foreign Corporation Income of U.S. Shareholder, is available on paper and for electronic filing.

Oregon

The Multnomah/Portland Underpayment Penalty Form QU-2018 has been removed by the Portland Revenue Division.

Rhode Island

Updated to prevent the state of Rhode Island from generating in returns that rolled forward information for prior year taxes from other states.

Texas

The report year on all forms will now show the correct year when the federal return is marked final and Texas Return Type has been overridden.
